🕯 Reading: 2 Samuel, 11 and 12

🕯 Reflection Song: “Be Merciful, O Lord”

Tradition has it that when he finally repented, David was extremely sorrowful and wrote the beautiful song of repentance, which is Psalm 51. Modern songwriter Steve Angrisano offers a version for our reflection:

*Be merciful, O Lord,
Have mercy on us, for we have sinned.
We come before you; cleanse us from within.
Have mercy on us, Lord.*

Have mercy on me in your goodness, Lord
In your great compassion wipe out my offense.
Wash me from my guilt, Lord,
Cleans me from my sin.
Have mercy on me, Lord.

Create a clean heart for me, O god.
And a steadfast spirit renew within me.
Cast me not out from your presence, O Lord.
Take not your Spirit from me.

Give me the joy of your salvation, Lord,
And a willing spirit sustain within me.
Open my lips,
Let my mouth proclaim your praise.
Have mercy on me, Lord.

⌄ Examination of Conscience

What are my sins?

How have I transgressed against God and others?

For what would I like to be forgiven?

✠ Closing prayer: Saint Patrick

In rising this morning, God's strength guides me.
God's power holds me on course.
God's wisdom leads me.
God's vision sets my direction.
God's heart listens to me.
God's voice speaks for me.
God's embrace protects me.
The way of God stretches out before me.

✠ Closing Song: Robert Le Blanc, OSB

O that shame, now ended in His glory!
O that pain, now lost in joy unknown!
Tell it out with praise the whole glad story,
Human nature at the Father's throne!
